

Backseat Driver – Kane Brown

CAPO: 4

[Intro]

D G D G

[Verse 1]

D G
7:30 in the morning in a Mickey D's drive-thru

D G
Two muffins, one coffee, and a little bitty orange juice

D
I saw a man with a sign on the corner

G
I rolled my window down, handed him a dollar

Bm
That's when I heard her ask

A
"Hey, daddy, who was that?"

G
And before I could answer back

G
She said

[Chorus]

G D
"Daddy, look, there's a plane in the sky

Bm
Are we there yet?

A
Did you just see that dog run by?

G
Do squirrels have houses in the trees?

D
Why'd God put stingers on honeybees?"

Bm A
It's crazy all the things she sees on the side of the road

G
Out of that window beside her

Em
I wish I could be more like her

D/F# G A D G
My little dangling feet, pretty in pink, backseat driver

[Verse 2]

D G
Later on that day, on the highway back home

Backseat Driver – Kane Brown

D G
I saw a lady in a black Mercedes yelling at her phone
D
She flew by me with her finger in the air
G
And I had to act like I didn't care
Bm
And that's when I heard her ask
A
"Daddy, why's she so mad?"
G
Before I could answer back
G
She said
[Chorus]
G D
"Daddy, can you please turn up the radio?"
Bm7 A
Hey, what are you pushing with your feet that makes us go?
G
Do squirrels have houses in the trees?
D
Why'd God put stingers on honeybees?"
Bm A
It's crazy all the things she sees on the side of the road
G
Out of that window beside her
Em
I wish I could be more like her
D/F# G A D G
My little dangling feet, pretty in pink, backseat driver
[Bridge]
A G
One day, I'll look back and I'll miss when
A
My whole world wasn't over that dash
G
It was back there buckled in [Interlude]
D Bm7 A
[Chorus]
D G D
Saying, "Daddy, look, there's a plane in the sky"

Backseat Driver – Kane Brown

Bm7
