[Verse 1]

	G		C
I hope the skies are beautiful and blue
	G		D
Wherever it is you, find yourself tonight
	G		C
I hope the miles help to find your smile
	G
Cause it's been gone awhile
	D
And if I told the truth

[Chorus]

	C		G
You can't blame a heart for getting broken
	C		G D
You can't change the color of the blues
	G
The railroad track and the highway
	C
I guess it's your turn now
	G	D	G
Even the river runs out of this town

[Verse 2]

	G		C
Part of me hates to see you leaving
	G		D
But the bigger part's believing it's what you had to do
	G

You can't burn bright in a town this dark
 Can't hitch your wishes to a one horse star
 And I can't blame you for that

[Chorus]

You can't blame a heart for getting broken
 You can't change the color of the blues
 The railroad track and the highway
 I guess it's your turn now
 Even the river runs out of this town
