Oh, ooh-ooh, oh, ooh-ooh

[Verse 1]

C Am Em

Riding off in the sunset, blue eyes under my Stetson

C Am Em

A little lady on the front porch wishing my heart would start settling

C Am

Big iron hips with the holsters

Em

I'd be looking mighty fine on a poster

C Am Em

Wanted by the law but the laws don't apply to me

[Chorus]

C Am Em

If I was a cowboy, I'd be wild and free

C Am Em G

Rolling around these towns like tumbleweeds

C Am

I'd be a legend at loving and leaving

Em

Nipping on a whiskey and numbing up my feelings

C Am Em

You thought the West was wild but you ain't saddled up with me

G C

If I was a cowboy, I'd be the queen

Am Em

Oh, ooh-ooh, oh, ooh-ooh

[Verse 2]

C Am Em

Sitting pretty on the prairie, baby, I'm your Huckleberry, let me hold you (Ooh, ooh)

C Am Em G

This six gun sugars got a hairpin trigger, like I told you (Ooh, ooh, ooh)

C Am

And this dove never really gets lonesome

Em

I never begged, never borrowed but I stole some

C Am Em

Wanted by the law but the laws don't apply to me, baby

[Chorus]

C Am Em

If I was a cowboy, I'd be wild and free

C Am Em G

Rolling around these towns like tumbleweeds

C Am

I'd be a legend at loving and leaving

Em

Nipping on a whiskey and numbing up my feelings
