[Verse 1]

Em                    D                    Em                    D
Nights in white satin,    never reaching the end,
C                    G                    F                    Em
Letters I've written, never meaning to send.
Em                    D                    Em                    D
Beauty I've always missed, with these eyes before,
C                    G                    F                    Em
Just what the truth is, I can't say any more

[Chorus]

                  A                    C                    Em                    D                    Em                    D
And I love you, yes I love you, oh, how I love you Oh Oh

[Verse 2]

Em                    D                    Em                    D
Gazing at people, some hand in hand,
C                    G                    F                    Em
Just what I'm going through, they can't understand.
Em                    D                    Em                    D
Some try to tell me, thoughts they cannot defend,
C                    G                    F                    Em
Just what you want to be, you'll be in the end.

[Chorus]

                  A                    C                    Em                    D
And I love you, yes I love you, oh, how I love you Oh Oh
Em                    D                    Em
love you Oh Oh
